Leaders in Training (LIT's)

Ages 13-15 years old | $130 members per week | $195 non-members per week

LIT's will join others in their age group to participate in leadership building opportunities through teambuilding exercises, physical fitness activities, social emotional learning, and more! Each week they will have one swim day and field trip specifically for their group. This program is offered similar weeks to traditional camp. This year in order to be approved into the LIT program, the LIT must complete an application that will be reviewed by the Youth Director, in order to make sure this program is a fit for the participant. The application can be found on our website.
